MODELLING OF HUMAN LANGUAGE

Assignment 2 Grading Guidelines

BASICS	CONTENT
Title & Abstract	Clear and descriptive title Abstract is a concise summary of the paper Brief and focused	2
Introduction	Gentle introduction to the topic Background with previous relevant research is presented Necessary concept and terms are explained The aim is clearly stated	5
Method	Information about participants reported correctly, Example stimuli presented Design described and justified Procedure described	5
Results	Appropriate use of graphs or tables Information describing tables/graphs (axis labels, captions, etc.) Descriptive statistics correct Inferential statistics presented briefly but correctly Model comparison procedure presented correctly	5
Discussion	The findings are discussed in relation to the previous research Research questions/aims are discussed based on the findings Possible limitations and suggestion for future studies	5
Appendix	Model output presented with all relevant information	2
Format	Neatness, well proofread, formatted well	3
Clarity	The text is clear, things are presented in a logical order, the author seems to clearly understand what was done.	3
TOTAL		30